The Canadian Public Health Association (CPHA) is a national, independent, not-for-profit, voluntary association representing public health in Canada with links to the international public health community (www.cpha.ca).

Financial assistance for drinkingfacts.ca was provided by Canada's Drug Strategy, Health Canada. The Drug Strategy Community Initiatives Fund aims to tackle problematic substance use on two key fronts: 1) promotion and prevention and 2) harm reduction (www.hc-sc.gc.ca/dhp-mps/substan/fond-comm-fund/index_e.htm).
